STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

Student Protection

St Aidan's Anglican Girls' School support the rights of children and young people and are committed to protecting the safety, welfare and wellbeing of students. St Aidan's Anglican Girls' School is therefore committed to responding to allegations of student harm resulting from the conduct or actions of any person including that of employees, contractors and volunteers.

This commitment includes the provision of a safe and supportive living and learning environment for all students and requires all employees, contractors and volunteers to model and encourage behaviour that upholds the dignity and protection of students from harm.

In support of this commitment, St Aidan's Anglican Girls' School is dedicated to our Child and Youth Risk Management strategy that includes having relevant policies, procedures and training in place to effectively address the safety and wellbeing of students in their care.
